

NADSFL Strategic Language Summit
For Coordinators of LARGE Districts
100 + World Language Teachers

Glastonbury Public Schools
Glastonbury, CT
July 13-15, 2009

This summit is an opportunity for district world language coordinators of large districts (100+ world language teachers) to collaborate, converse, and network with others in similar situations about the following critical areas:

- Professional development
- Instruction
- Assessment
- Curriculum
- Teacher Retention/Efficacy
- Staffing Issues
- Technology
- Funding Sources (including FLAP & STARTALK)

PLEASE apply by May 22

This informal networking opportunity will be hosted by Rita Oleksak, President of NADSFL, and Glastonbury Public Schools. Organizers will be Greta Lundgaard, Vice-President, and Dawn Samples, SCOLT Regional Representative.

Attendees should be prepared to pay all travel, meal, & lodging costs. Windsor Locks/Hartford International is the nearest airport (25 minutes away). A room block at the state rate (approx $104.00/night ) will be set up at a local hotel to keep all out-of-pocket expenses as low as possible. Minimum required: 10 attendees.

A $25.00 registration fee will be required with applications.
